

2018-2019 TITLE I HOME SCHOOL PARTNERSHIP COMPACT

Orchard Park Elementary School administrators, teachers, support staff, and families, have agreed on this compact to outline how all stakeholders will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership to help children achieve the State’s high standards.

School Responsibilities

Orchard Park Elementary School administrators, teachers, and support staff will commit to:

- Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a positive, safe, supportive, and effective learning environment that builds self-esteem and ensures the opportunity for all students to be successful.
- Hold parent-teacher conferences during the fall and spring semesters each year during which this compact will be discussed as it relates to the individual child’s achievement. Parents and teachers may also schedule conferences as needed throughout the school year.
- Provide parents with frequent reports on their child’s progress. Specifically, the school will send home interim reports and report cards four times a year; parents are invited to contact their child’s teacher with questions.
- Communicate and provide information for parents through Canvas, Class Dojo, OPE News Show (via YouTube), monthly school and classroom newsletters, phone calls, emails, weekly take-home folders, written notes in student agenda, teacher websites, and school webpage.
- Show that we care about all students, address each student’s needs, encourage individual talents, and respect the uniqueness of all students and their families.
- Provide parents opportunities to support their child’s education by participating as follows: joining your child for lunch, chaperoning field trips, volunteering, serving on school and/or district committees, attending school events and meetings, and reviewing Title I plans and compacts.

Family Responsibilities

Orchard Park Elementary families will commit to support our child’s learning in the following ways:

- Ensure your child attends school regularly and come to school on time ready to learn.
- Stay informed about your child’s education by promptly reading and responding to, as appropriate, all notices from the school and/or the school district.
- Support your child’s well-being and education by attending school functions, volunteering/serving on committees when possible, supporting school events/workshops, and making every effort to attend parent-teacher conferences.
- Provide sufficient time and an environment at home that allows your child to complete school work and study at home.
- Reinforce to your child the importance of respect for self and others.
- Encourage your child to do his/her best work, to make reading at home a priority, and to set high expectations for academic achievement.
